Cyber Security Financial Frameworks in Europe Event

CREST brought key stakeholders and leading industry experts together in Frankfurt at an invitation only event on 23 March, to share information about how cyber security frameworks are evolving across Europe. There was an impressive line-up of presenters from CREST, the ECB (European Central Bank), Bank of England, JP Morgan, DnB Bank and Lloyds Banking Group. Thank you to everyone who made the trip and we look forward to more meetings and events like this in Europe in the future.

More on the CREST Academic Partnership

Thank you for the continued interest in CREST's new academic partnership. We are still looking for people at member companies that would be happy to present guest lectures to students at CREST academic partner universities. These can be on any topics of interest or even a demonstration. If you are interested, please contact Sam Morgan at sam.morgan@crest-approved.org

We are delighted to welcome a number of new institutions as academic partners and are also looking to get more signed up. If you have the details of anyone who may be interested in joining, please contact sam.morgan@crest-approved.org.

Digital-Johore 4.0 launch event in Malaysia on 1-2 April

Ian Glover, president of CREST, was disappointed that he was unable to make it over for Digital-Johore 4.0 launch event to take part in the panel discussion about the cyber hygiene program collaboration with iTGRC and MSC Cyberport. However, he sent a video presentation that gave some background to CREST and explained to the audience the importance of good cyber hygiene. Reports back from the event are very positive so congratulations to all involved.
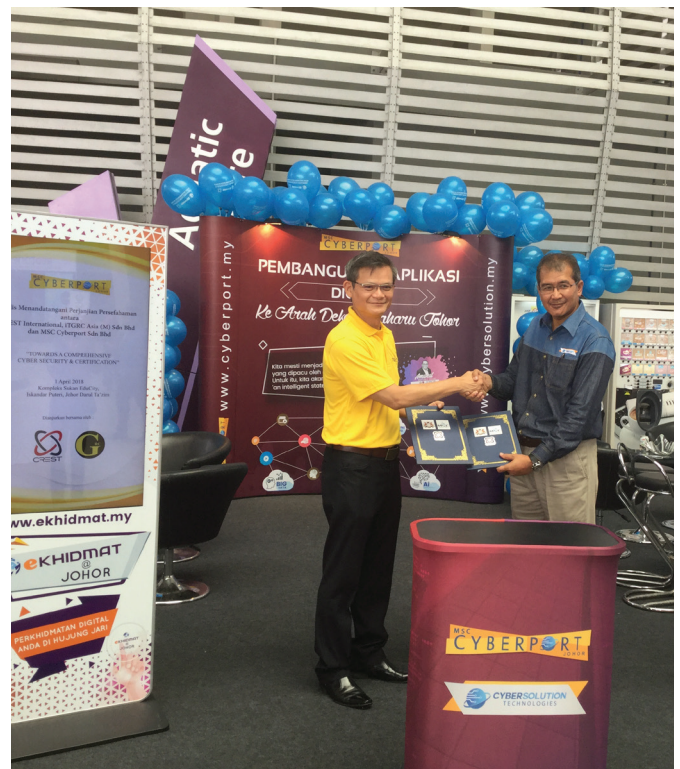

The official exchange of the MoU for the collaboration of MSC Cyberport, CREST and iTGRC on the cyber-hygiene program

HackNYC 2018

7-10 May

https://q22018.hacknyc.com/en/

The recent flood of data breach news may numb us to the threat of attacks with kinetic effects-direct or indirect physical damage, injury, or death. Hack NYC focuses' on our preparation for, and resilience to, the genuine potential for Kinetic Cyber attack. Be part of defining solutions and illuminate risks aimed at Critical National Infrastructure
• financial services (banking, clearing);
• security services (police, military electricity generation transmission and distribution);
• gas production, transport and distribution;
• oil and oil products production, transport and distribution;
• telecommunications;
• water supply (drinking water, waste water/sewage, stemming of surface water (e.g. dikes and sluices));
• agriculture, food production and distribution;
• heating (e.g. natural gas, fuel oil, district heating);
• public health (hospitals, ambulances);
• transportation systems (fuel supply, railway network, airports, harbors, inland shipping);
The event is about sharing big ideas on how we will fortify our daily life and economic vitality. The threat of attack aimed at Critical National Infrastructure is real as services supporting our communities and businesses face common vulnerabilities and an unspoken kinetic threat.
